

You know that earning a degree shouldn't cost you more each year. Texas A&M University-Commerce agrees. Our [in]tuition plan locks in tuition costs and mandatory fees for your academic program from registration to graduation. It's one less thing to think about when planning for your graduate education.

With [in]tuition at A&M-Commerce, you can begin each year with the immediate understanding that the cost of your degree has not changed while you receive the high-quality education that our university has offered for 125 years.

[in]tuition includes:

Texas resident statutory tuition*	mandatory fees^
designated tuition	differential tuition

*Non-resident statutory tuition is set by the state of Texas annually and cannot be guaranteed. ^Mandatory fees include the student service, student center, athletic, recreation center and university services fees. Conditional fees such as distance education or lab fees are not included.

Effective Fall 2014

So how does this affect YOU?

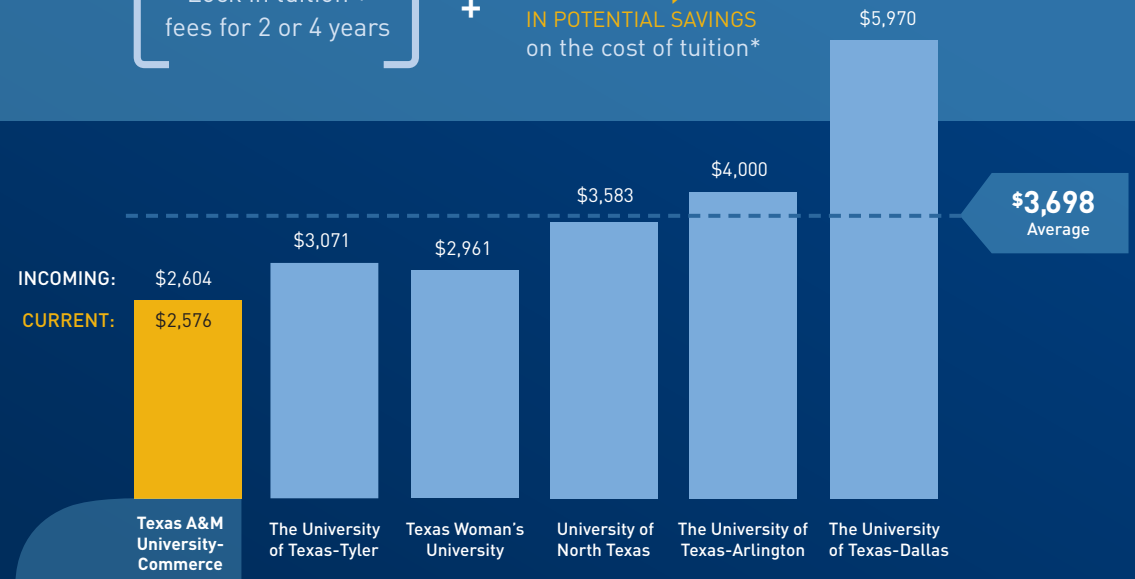

As a partner in your educational investment, A&M-Commerce is offering you a guarantee that gives you stability and advantages:
